

French Resources

FRENCH NEWSPAPERS & CURRENT AFFAIRS

The following sites are all concerned with up-to-date news and current affairs

Le Journal De Dimanche

Paris Match

France 24 - L'Actualités Internationale

Yahoo Actualités

Le Monde

Le Figaro

Le Point

L'Express

Mon JT Quotidien

20 Minutes

Ina

This site serves up an archive of audio visual news items. Excellent for vocabulary and aural work.

L'EQUIPE

All about sports –literally.

FRENCH RADIO AND TELEVISION

RFI - Radio France Internationale

Europe 1 : actualité française et internationale, web radio en ligne

Radio France

FranceInter

RTL - le site de la radio

TV5.org/Apprendre.TV

TV5MONDE - 7 jours sur la planète - FLE - français langue étrangère - exercices cours activités

GRAMMAR AND VOCABULARY

Colle Française & Le Truc des Genres

The Colle Française is amazing! It's essentially a one-page "reference card" that helps you to master the adjectives, adverbs, prepositions, and conjunctions that link verbs and nouns into complete sentences. It'll change your life! The Truc is also a handy one page Gender Reference card listing each ending, the number of nouns with that ending, helping with the accuracy of gender prediction in a noun. Fab!

Verbix

French Verbs at their finest – you type in the infinitive and it gives you every possible ending option available.

Language Guide

Has some quite basic beginner's material in terms of vocabulary but really comes into its own with the Grammar section and especially the Readings section, which allows you to improve your aural and oral skills and speak like a native!

Vikipidia

Vikidia is a French, free and interactive encyclopedia project for French children, but really helpful in terms of its vocabulary and sheer breadth of topics for Irish students of French.

DICTIONARIES

Word Reference

For practical reading purposes, the French-English on-line dictionary is the best choice, and includes links to discussions on particular points of usage.

Lexigloss

allows access to a large battery of dictionaries, including Larousse